BOY SCOUTS WILL CAMPTA WINONA LAKE

HUNDREDS OF KNIGHTS AND ESQUIRES TO ENJOY TENT
LIFE THIS SUMMER AT GREAT RESORT.

MANY STUNTS TAUGHT

Dr. Perry Powell In Charge—Plymouth Lads Are Earning Money To Go On Fine Outing.

Thousands of boys the country over are planning to enter one of the famous Boys' Camps this summer. The Boys Camps are rather a new thing and are decidedly popular. There is the hunting and fishing camp composed of a few boys in the wilds and much more largely attended Athletic Camp on the shores of lakes here and there.

One of the great Boys Camps of the country will meet this year at Winona Lake for ten days, beginning the latter part of August. It is called the Sixth International. Scores of boys from the surrounding country are planning to attend it.

The Pages, boys under 12 years of age are not eligible. The camp is open to the esquires knights, but admission is granted only upon a grade of 75 percent merit, depending upon attendance at each chapter meetings, church and Sunday School. In Plymouth there are 25 esquires and 30 knights and many of these are expecting to go.

The camp will be in charge of Dr. Perry E. Powell, a member of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Among the great doings at the Winona Camp will be a state convention, consists in base ball, tennis basket ball, field meet and tract meet. Degree teams will present the ritual. The Boy Scout work will be demonstrated and the boys taught how to make a fire without matches, lay a fire, build a bed willow springs, grass mat, booth semaphores signalling, the Scout yell, salute and knot tying.

Dr. Powell will do an especial work which is peculiar to him, the training of the body with his system of body building exercises and a contest in the most perfect Physical Man.

Boys who do not know how to swim will be taught. Seldom takes more than a week to make a good swimmer of a Scout. They are also taught how to handle a boat. Other diversions are tramping parties with instruction in natural history as an incidental, and playing on musical instruments.

The boys are awakened early in the morning with the reveille. After a few setting up exercises they take their morning plunge. One feature of camp life which is done with a hearty good will is the eating. The food is simple but the quantities consumed are immense. A doctor will look after the ills of the boys but about all he is ever required to treat is sun-burn.

The cost of the camp this year to each boy is $6.65. It is expected that the boys will earn this money themselves. Many Plymouth boys are picking cherries, mowing lawns, and doing all kinds of jobs and salting down their coin with their prospect in view.

Rev. Mr. Ivins left last night for Trenton, N. Y. to attend the funeral of his grandfather. He expects to be absent for ten days. He was accompanied by Bishop White, who goes to Newport, R. I. to conduct the opening service for the triennial meeting of order of Cincinnati, he being the chaplain of that order.

THE PROGRAM FOR SATURDAY CLUB IS OUT

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION PLAN
FOR TWENTY-FOURTH YEAR
OF STUDY IN LITERATURE
ART AND MUSIC.

COMMITTEES NAMED

To Have Debate In April On Question Whether Or Not Modern Conditions Improved Women.

The programs for the next year's work in the Saturday Club have been printed and are now in the hands of the members. The programs are in pink and green paper, the club colors. The club was organized in 1888, and will enter upon its twenty-fourth year with 1911-1912. It is federated with the National and State Federations of Women's Clubs so that the ladies have the benefit to be derived from association with thousands of women who are doing the same lines of work and are permitted to send delegates to all State and National conventions.

The Saturday Club has a membership of sixty-two women. Their motto is "Self-improvement and helpfulness to others."

The officers for the year 1911-1912 are:

President—Mrs. S. N. Stevens;
Vice-president—Miss Allet Klinger;
Secretary—Mrs. Floyd Bunnell;
Treasurer—Mrs. Robert Snell;

The following are the various committees which will direct the work for the next year:

Committee on Art: Mrs. Phoebe Willey, Mrs. William O'Keefe, Miss Emma Protsman, Mrs. Leopold Lauer.

Committee on Music: Mrs. George Thayer, Mrs. Dr. Charles Holtzendorf, Mrs. Frank Brooke, Miss Julia Yockey.

Committee on Program: Mrs. A. R. Underwood, Mrs. Julia Blaine, Mrs. Dr. Charles Brown.

Committee on Entertainment: Mrs. J. B. Powell, Mrs. C. W. Metsker, Mrs. Herbert Hess, Mrs. Eley Milner.

The study for the next year will be purely literary, with a sprinkling of art and music study. One innovation found on the program for April 27, is a debate on the question, Resolved: That modern conditions have improved Woman.

The meetings of the Saturday Club will be held each Saturday afternoon from September ninth until May the eighteenth, at the homes of its members. There will be thirty-three meetings during the club year.

A NOTRE DAME LADY'S APPEAL.

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbago, backache, pains in the kidneys or neuralgia, to write to her for a home treatment, which has repeatedly cured all of these troubles. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood, and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. If the above interests you, for proof address Mrs. M. Summers, Box R, Notre Dame, Ind.

YOUNG LADIES PLAN TO TAKE EUROPEAN TRIP

MISS NEFF, IN COMPANY WITH SCHOOL FRIENDS, WILL SPEND SUMMER IN EUROPE.

SAIL JULY FIRST

Will Visit Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Holland, Belgium, France, England and Scotland.

Miss Hazel Neff in company with Miss Porter the art instructor at Greensboro female college where Miss Neff has been teaching the past year and two other young ladies will take an extended trip through Europe this summer.

They will sail from Boston July first on the White Star line, on the Steam ship "Canopus". The following is a brief resume of the many treats which are in store for them:

They will touch land at the Azores Islands, midway in the Atlantic, calling at Ponta Delgada. Next they will pass through the historic straits of Gibraltar, looking upon one hand to the rocks unchanged since the Pharaohs beheld them, and from there away to the dread home of the pirates of Morocco.

They will visit quaint Naples, Mt. Vesuvius and Pompeii, the ancient city which it buried, Amalfi, Sorrento and the picturesque Island of Capri. From here they will go to Rome, and they have not yet announced whether or not they will call on his Highness, the Pope. However they will surely see the Coliseum and the ancient Forum where Julius Caesar and Mark Anthony spoke of old.

They will take a look at the leaning tower at Pisa, will revel in the City of Florence with its long line of artists and musicians. They will ride in a gondola in Venice, visit stately Milan and Bavens on Lake Maggiore.

Through the Simplon Pass, which has baffled many an army of yore, they will drive in comfort, drinking in to the full the marvel and glory of the beautiful Alps. They will call at the Castle of Chillon, shuddering for the famous prisoner, who has so long since gone hence. They will take a steamer across that much lauded Lake Geneva, the Crystal heart of Switzerland. They will admire the bears at Berne, ride by steamer across Lake Thun from Scherlizen to Interlaken, whence they will go by mountain railway to Lucerne, passing the Falls in the Rhine and wondering at its ancient castles, they will come to the mysterious Black Forest, black in its history of crimes, but now a mere American grove, and on to "Alt Heidelberg, du fine," with its famous university and its beer tans. By Rhine steamer they will go from Mayence to Bonn, or Cologne. Here Miss Neff will leave her party for a visit at Berlin. Thence to Amsterdam, with its thrifty marts, to Marken, to the Hague, Antwerp and Brussels.

It could not be expected of four ladies that they would miss "gay Paris" and they are no exception to the rule. From there they will visit London, where Miss Neff will halt and take some lessons of Shakespeare, the great vocalist, the teacher also of Prof. Owens. They will visit the University at Oxford, drive from Leamington to Kennilworth, with its famous castle, see the sights at Warwick, and do homage to Shakespeare's home at Stratford-on-Avon.

From Stratford-on-Avon they will go north to Chester, through Carlisle, to Edinburgh, the home of Sir Walter Scott, to Glasgow, that city so noted for its clean street, and successful municipal enterprises.

From Glasgow they will board their steamer for home, arriving at Montreal on September fourth. That is, their plan is to take ship for home. If some daring Cosack or Scottish Earle offers sufficient inducement, the party may not return at all, for—

"the best laid plans of mice and men (and maids), Gang aft agley."
Miss Neff hopes to visit Plymouth on her return, before taking up her work at Greensboro for another year. She has generously promised to write for the Republican an account of her experiences while abroad, so our readers may expect a most interesting letter.
